

Middle School Math Teacher (6th-8th) Job Description

DESCRIPTION

The position includes the instruction, supervision, and guidance of students at Northland Christian School in a manner that promotes Biblical values and excellence in academics to honor God. From time to time, additional duties may be assigned by the principal or school administration as needed.

JOB PURPOSE

The qualified individual is committed to fulfilling our mission within our community of students and families. The role includes all aspects of planning, organizing, and implementing an appropriate instructional program in a secondary learning environment that guides and encourages students to fulfill their academic potential and promote positive spiritual development. Reporting to the Secondary Principal, this is a full-time position during the approximately ten-month academic school year, pay commensurate with experience.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE POSITION

- Demonstrate knowledge of subject area/s taught.
- Demonstrate knowledge of developmental characteristics of age group(s) taught.
- Effectively utilize the basic elements of instruction (i.e. presenting of information, questioning techniques, responding to learner input, arrangement of learning activities).
- Demonstrate ability to inspire learning and cultivate relationships with students.
- Prepare appropriate weekly lesson plans including instructional objectives, planned activities, Biblical integration, assessments, and resources.
- Provide a variety of learning materials and resources for use in educational activities to support proper differentiation of instruction.
- Utilize appropriate assessment techniques to inform and evaluate student learning and progress.
- Incorporate classroom technology in order to enhance instruction.
- Implement effective classroom management and discipline procedures to provide for a positive classroom environment conducive to learning.
- Regularly review/update department and course curriculum maps to assure the fulfillment of proper instructional priorities and pacing.
- Update all student and school records accurately and completely as required.
- Model effective teacher/parental partnering through timely and proactive communication with parents in support of student behavioral and academic success (posting of assignments, grades, conferencing, etc.).
- Assist with enlarging the vision and mission of Northland Christian School.
- Motivate students to accept God's gift of salvation and help them grow in their faith through their witness and Christian role modeling.
- Lead students to a realization of their self-worth in Christ and assist them in making positive life choices.
- Integrate Biblical principles and the Christian philosophy of education throughout all activities.
- Keep the Administration adequately informed of serious student issues.
- Recognize the need for good public relations and represent the school in a favorable and professional manner to the school's constituency and the general public.

- Develop and maintain rapport with students, parents, and staff by treating others with friendliness, dignity, and consideration.
- Follow the Matthew 18 principle in dealing with conflict with students, parents, staff, and Administration.
- Know the procedures for dealing with emergency situations.

SUPPLEMENTAL FUNCTIONS OF THE POSITION

- Supervise extracurricular activities, organizations, and outings as assigned.
- Utilize educational opportunities and evaluation processes for professional growth.
- Provide input and constructive recommendations for administrative and managerial functions in the school.
- Support the broader program of the school by attending extracurricular activities when possible.
- The employee agrees to abide by the regulations set forth in the Faculty-Staff Handbook and the Parent-Student Handbook, as well as any additions made during the year. The employee agrees to cooperate in every way with the school administration and to adhere to the policies adopted by the Northland Christian School Board of Trustees.
- The employee will arrive at school at the scheduled time, cover extra duties such as lunchroom supervision or activity-schedule events and assemblies, submit attendance for each class period, follow the instructions in the lesson plans, and communicate with the teacher about incomplete work or other helpful information.
- If applicable, employee agrees to provide documentation for all state and school medical requirements for the position with the Head of School's office before the start of the school year.
- Upon request, the employee agrees to submit to a physical examination (including random drug testing) by a licensed physician at the school's expense and furnish the school with a copy of the physician's report.
- The employee will help maintain an environment conducive to learning. This includes maintaining a professional appearance and the timely reporting of classroom activities and grades via the technological tools employed by the school.
- Upon request, the employee agrees to submit to a criminal background check through an entity selected by the school, and the school is to receive a copy of the results directly from that entity.
- The employee acknowledges that he/she is or will become fully aware of his/her obligations under state law regarding child abuse reporting requirements and that he/she will fulfill those obligations.
- Perform any other duties that may be assigned by the Administration.

REQUIRED SPIRITUAL QUALITIES

- The employee affirms that, as part of the qualifications for this position, he/she is a Christian and believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
- The employee recognizes and affirms that all employment positions at Northland Christian School are part of a Christian ministry.
- The employee will faithfully attend and support a local church and provide the school with a verification of good standing from their local church upon request.
- The employee will manifest by precept and example the highest Christian virtue and personal decorum, serving as a Christian role model (1 Timothy 4:12) both in and out of school to pupils and as an example to parents and fellow staff members in judgment, respect, and Christian living. This is not limited to, the refraining from such activities as the use of illicit or illegal drugs, and the use of profane and vulgar language, which are grounds for termination.

- The employee will strive at all times to understand, appreciate, love, and serve the pupils entrusted to him/her and will do the best of his/her ability to provide for their fullest spiritual, intellectual, physical, and emotional development.
- The employee possesses sufficient Biblical knowledge to successfully integrate Scriptures and fundamental Biblical principles in order to instruct students through the lens of a Biblical worldview.
- The employee agrees to follow the Biblical pattern of Matthew 18:15-17 and Galatians 6:1 with regard to his/her peers/school administration, and school board. All differences are to be resolved by utilizing Biblical principles-always presenting a united front. Appropriate confidentiality will be observed in regard to pupil, parent, and school matters (Titus 3:2 and Galatians 5:15).
- The employee agrees that the Bible dictates standards of sexual behavior. Any heterosexual activity outside of marriage (premarital sex, cohabitation, extramarital sex) (Hebrews 13:4, Ephesians 5:3, I Thessalonians 4:3-8), homosexual activity (Romans 1:24-27, Leviticus 20:13), sexual harassment (I Thessalonians 4:3-7, Ephesians 5:3-5), possession or habitual, deliberate viewing of pornographic material and websites (I John 2:16, Matthew 5:28), sexual abuse or improprieties toward minors (Luke 17:1-2) or other inappropriate sexual behavior is forbidden and as such violates the bona fide occupational requirement of being a Christian role model and is grounds for immediate termination.

ESSENTIAL PERSONAL QUALITIES

- Recognize the role of parents as primarily responsible before God for their children's education and be prepared to assist them in that task.
- Demonstrate the qualities of enthusiasm, courtesy, flexibility, integrity, gratitude, kindness, self-control, perseverance, punctuality, organization, and professionalism.
- Meet everyday stress with emotional stability, objectivity, and optimism.
- Maintain a personal appearance that is a Christian role model of cleanliness, modesty, and agreement with school policy.
- Use acceptable English in written and oral communication.
- Speak with clear articulation.
- Respectfully submit and be loyal to constituted authority.
- Notify the administration of the inability to support any policy.
- Refuse to use or circulate confidential information inappropriately.
- Place administrative ministry ahead of other jobs or volunteer activities.
- Make an effort to appreciate and understand the uniqueness of the community.
